

Send story ideas or comments to communications@rentonwa.gov.

Translation of the newsletter is available on the City of Renton's website. For additional translation services contact communications@rentonwa.gov.

If you're not already a subscriber, please sign up and get up-to-date news and information from City Hall.

Friday, April 2, 2021 | Vol. VI | Issue 12

VIDEO

April is Distracted Driving Awareness Month. It is illegal in our state to use a cell phone while driving. But phones are just one distraction for drivers, along with eating, drinking, talking and adjusting music.

Renton police are using a grant from targetzero.com to increase patrols during the month to help change behaviors.

Please watch this safety video with RPD Officer Matthew Nugent to see how you can do your part.

РНОТО

Renton Police Office Matthew Nugent received the department's Life Saving Medal from Chief Jon Schuldt (left) and Commander Daniel Fiaaro (riaht).

Officer Nugent receives department's Life Saving Medal

The certificate reads:

On December 2, 2020, you responded to a single vehicle accident. Upon arrival you found the driver suffering from cardiac arrest. You recognized this and began administering emergency care. Your quick response, recognition of the severity of the medical emergency, immediate actions, and effective use of CPR directly resulted in the saving of a life. For your extraordinary actions and providing life-saving efforts you are awarded the Renton Police Department's Life Saving Medal.

COVER STORY

Judge Jurado's wife Erica Brehm and his son Spencer joined him at Wednesday's retirement celebration. Other significant people in his life joined via Zoom.

Municipal Court Judge Terry Jurado hangs up his robe after 22 distinguished years After more than 22 years on the Renton Municipal Court bench, Judge Terry L.

Jurado is turning in his gavel for a fishing pole and his robe for waders. Jurado, the city's longest-serving judge, officially retired after Wednesday's court session.

"I'm looking forward to retirement," he said, "but I'm not exactly sure what I'm going to do. But whatever it is, fishing will play a major part."

He's seen a lot in his time on the bench and credits introducing technology as the court's most significant change.

"I would get buckets of case files dropped on my desk, and we had a room full of filing cabinets," he explained while pointing to the ample space outside his office. "Now we can access state and federal law online, and I can make case notes on the docket instead of relying on the clerk. It makes us much more efficient." That efficiency was vital as the court moved to all remote hearings because of COVID-19. Not only was the court able to continue to function, but they also discovered a silver lining within the pandemic, one that he sees continuing even after the courts reopen. "We have seen an increase in the number of people attending hearings," Judge Jurado. "It's easier for a defendant as they don't have to leave their home. I thought it was incredible and can see it being continued."

This transition to all remote hearing was the strangest twist in the judge's career as a public servant, which started when he enlisted in the Air Force at 18. He went to Arizona State on the GI Bill, graduating in 1980 and then worked four years as an epidemiologist for the Centers for Disease Control.

contract tracing, much like we're doing now with COVID-19." In 1984 he returned to Houston to go to law school. After a year, he transferred to the Pacific Northwest to be near his mother. Eventually, he

"That was during the AIDS epidemic. I moved from Houston to Selma, Alabama, where I ran an AIDS/STD clinic. We treated patients and used graduated from the University of Puget Sound Law School. He interned with the King County Prosecutor's Office until passing the bar. He went to work for the prosecutor's office trying violent felonies and helped start the gang task force. "Those prosecutions were very tough," he recalled. "After a few years, they asked me to move over to sexual assault cases. That's when I knew I'd had enough of the prosecutor's office." Jurado moved to a civil law firm to conduct administrative hearings. It was there he made his first appearance on the bench as a pro tem judge. He

"I tried to treat everyone, defendants and attorneys, fairly and with respect," he said when asked how he'd like to be remembered. "That's a big deal for me. Before handing down a sentence, I would always ask myself, 'Is what I'm eventually joined the Renton court in 1999.

doing with this defendant consistent with other defendants in similar situations?' "

"If you ask around, I think people will say I was consistent. Even the defendants." His co-workers use "calm and confident" to describe him. They also mention his sense of humor (his LinkedIn profile features a mug shot of Mad Magazine's Alfred E. Newman) and love of music. "He has a joke for everything," said fellow municipal court judge Kara Murphy Richards, who will succeed Judge Jurado as the court's presiding judge. "He's been a great friend and mentor who we will greatly miss." "My humor is not planned. It just comes out," the judge says with a smile. "It helps keep things in perspective." You can also call him a hero. In 2013 he was honored by the American Legion for performing life-saving CPR on a cardiac arrest victim while at a community baseball game. He is a self-taught guitarist whose musical tastes run the entire spectrum from classical to grunge. "I'm especially fond of 90s rock," he said. "It was unique."

His appreciation for that genre is traced to his son Damien, an accomplished singer and songwriter. Damien is one of the judge's nine children. He also has five grandchildren.

With Judge Murphy ascending to the role as presiding judge, the city has hired Judge Jessica Giner to fill the judicial vacancy. Judge Jurado has been instrumental in guiding their careers and is confident they will continue to maintain the court's reputation as one of the best in the state. "Kara was very level-headed as a new community court.

Judge Jessica Giner

"Jessica was very impressive as a pro tem (judge). She'd come in to talk about cases and procedures. Not all pro tems do that.

"I feel terrific about Kara and Jessica. They will do a great job."

Even in retirement, Judge Jurado will continue to give back through community work.

"I always said that when (being a judge) stops being fun, I'd stop. But it never stopped being fun. "It's been my great privilege to work with the most amazingly competent people. Everyone has been exceptional. I will miss them."

And we will miss you Judge Jurado. Thank you for all you've done for our community and enjoy a happy and rewarding retirement.

MUNICIPAL COURT

Back on Track offers help with bench warrants

For a limited time, persons with bench warrants in any municipal court within King County can quash a qualified warrant through the Back on Track warrant amnesty program. This program is now available through June 30, 2021.

While each court has its own procedure for the program, many warrants under $5,000 will be handled administratively. The warrant is immediately removed, and a new court hearing is scheduled. Warrants over $5,000 and warrants that involve Domestic Violence, No Contact Orders, DUIs and Physical Control (no matter the amount of the warrant) will be referred to the judge for consideration, depending on court policies.

For more information on the program, contact Renton Municipal Court at 425-430-6550 or rmcourt@rentonwa.gov.

SOLID WASTE UTILITY

with the organics materials collected.

You can get 15% off on orders of five-or-more yards through April 26 during "Compost Days." Or buy any two Cedar Grove Bags and receive a free bag of compost. These discounts are available at any Cedar Grove location and at

Our curbside recycling program has resulted in nutrient-rich compost made one of their participating retailers. Are you interested in growing tomatoes? Register for the April 14 Growing Groceries class on tomato family crops, including potatoes, tomatillos, eggplants, and peppers, presented by Washington State University.

Small Business Support

Funding Programs

increase retroactive. The new limit covers up to 24-months of economic injury with a maximum loan amount of $500,000, up from 6-months and a maximum loan amount of $150,000.

Available small business grants

- In our previous This Week in Renton, we provided information on two grant programs accepting applications from small businesses affected by COVID-19. Greater Seattle Business Association small business recovery grant
 - program. Priority will be given to BIPOC-, LGBTQ- and womenowned businesses. Applications are open through April 9, 2021. Washington State Department of Commerce's Working Washington Grants: Round 4. These funds are designated for small for-profit businesses, especially those required to close due to public health and safety measures. Applications are open through April 9, 2021.

Paycheck Protection Program loan deadline extended

The president has signed a bill extending the deadline for Paycheck Protection Program to May 31.

Our Economic Development staff has more COVID-19 resources. If you have any questions about available grants/loans and your business's ability to get financial relief, please contact our Business Response Team.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Donate blood and save a life

If you haven't already registered to give blood at one of the remaining BloodworksNW pop-up blood drives in Renton, please think about donating.

There are four opportunities in April, and appointments are being accepted. Hyatt Regency Lake Washington at Southport Seattle Room

(1053 Lake Washington Blvd., 98056)

April 7: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

- April 8: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Appointments

Lindbergh High School Cafeteria (16426 128th Ave SE, 98058)

- April 15: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. April 16: 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Appointments

Renton Technical College hosts a Blood Drive with Cascade Regional Blood Service on April 8 from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. in the school's parking lot. There are still times available.

COVID-19

The governor announced that the statewide eviction moratorium will be extended through June 30, 2021. The moratorium was first put in place

Eviction moratorium extended on March 18, 2020, and is designed as vital protection for families struggling with the persistent economic effects of the COVID-19 pandemic. Classroom social distancing option reduced to 3 feet

The governor announced he would sign an order giving schools the option to reduce social distancing in the classroom from six feet to three feet. This aligns with revised guidance from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

the county are low enough.

required to verify COVID-19 vaccine eligibility.

Health's prioritization guidance webpage to see when they are eligible. Those who are eligible can then use Vaccine Locator to find an appointment.

People who want a vaccine should now check the state Department of Vaccine Locator is available in 30 languages and will add seven more languages by the end of April. Those who have further questions or need help making an appointment can call the state's COVID-19 information hotline at 1-800-525-0127, then press #. Language assistance is available.

While Phase Finder is going away, the state's vaccine phases are staying the same. The state remains in Phase 1B2, and on March 31, vaccine eligibility was opened to people in Phase 1B tiers 3 and 4.

The governor announced that on April 15 all adults will be eligible for vaccines. Public Health Seattle-King County's target is to have at least 70% of adults are fully vaccinated by July 31, 2021. To set expectations, it may be better to think that we will likely be fully vaccinated at some point between May – September. The mitigation strategies (mask wearing, social distancing, etc.) will be with us throughout this period, and beyond, until case numbers in

County Executive proposes $600 million American Rescue Plan budget

King County Executive Dow Constantine has submitted a $00 million spending plan to the County Council to address public health, community supports, jobs, and economic recovery. The proposal is funded in part by the American Rescue Plan.

The plan prioritizes the continuing public health response, increased vaccinations, community supports, anti-racist-work, and economic recovery that promotes access to jobs and housing supports.

EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

MLB Pitch, Hit & Run

The Pitch Hit & Run is the official skills competition of Major League Baseball. Leave it all on the field Saturday, April 10 at 2 p.m., in this FREE competition showcasing your baseball and softball skills. Boys and girls are divided into four age divisions (7-8, 9-10, 11-12, 13-14) and have the chance to advance to T-Mobile Park or even the National Finals during MLB All-Star Week.

Due to social distancing requirements, participants must pre-register online for a time slot. Players and staff must wear a mask at ALL TIMES.

Register through mlb.com/pitch-hit-and-run.

Virtual Youth Dance Classes

Keep moving with our virtual classes until we're in person again. Classes run April 17 through May 15 and include offerings for ages 3 to 11. Register at rentonwa.gov/register. Type "dance" in the search box.

Nature Journaling Experience Explore, experiment, and play at Coulon Beach Park with different written and artistic processes to capture our observations, thoughts, and feelings about nature. Art supplies are provided. Register at rentonwa.gov/register for either individual classes or a four-class series, which starts April 11.

"Keep Moving" Low-Impact Mobility & Strength

Don't miss this interactive sneak peek of one of our upcoming classes! On Tuesday, April 13, at 2 p.m., Physical Therapist and Movement Specialist Dr. Anna Friedman, DPT, will discuss and demonstrate low-impact exercises and stretches. This "Keep Moving" low-impact mobility and strength course will help you move better and feel stronger. Age-Friendly Renton Virtual Talks is a free virtual series with various topics. Register at rentonwa.gov/register with course 9497 and join online with Zoom. For help, call 425-430-6633. Talks take place on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month at 2 p.m.

Renton Innovation Zone Partnership continues its community support with its free drive-through multi-service event at Campbell Hill Elementary, on Friday, April 9, from 3-5 p.m. Baby supplies, household items, food boxes and frozen family meals will be available. There will be information for housing, medical and health insurance, childcare, preschool consultation and developmental screening, WIC and First Steps. Signups are also available for free laptops and rental assistance referrals, ORCA LIFT cards, and free academic and career trade training.

Social distancing guidelines will be strictly enforced as attendees will be asked to remain in their vehicles.

RECYCLE DAYS

Click to open a larger version

CITY COUNCIL

Mayor Armondo Pavone (center front) is flanked by the 2021 Renton City Council. Ruth Pérez and Council President Randy Corman are seated in the front row. Standing: Valerie O'Halloran, Ed Prince, Council President Pro Tem Ryan McIrvin, Kim-Khánh Văn, and Angelina Repedețti

The City Council did not meet on Monday, March 29. They will reconvene on Monday, April 5, at 7 p.m. Committee of the Whole will meet that evening at 6 p.m.

March 22, 2021 Meeting

- Meeting documents (approved committee reports, motion sheets, and council committee meeting calendar)
- Proclamations: Education and Sharing Day. National Safe Place Week
- Council meeting video
- Committee of the Whole video
- Approved Minutes from March 15, 2021 meeting

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Renton City Council meets via Zoom. For information on viewing or participating in a council meeting, go to rentonwa.gov/council. Past meetings are available at rentonwa.gov/youtube.

CALENDAR Mon.-Fri., 11:30 a.m. Senior Meals. Free, drive-thru sack lunch pick up.

Limited quantities. Renton Senior Activity Center.

Mondays, 5:30-7:30 p.m. Sustainable Renton free drive-through grocery store at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church.

Wednesdays, bi-weekly, 6 p.m. Renton Live! from the Renton Chamber of Commerce. Online connection promoting businesses, nonprofits and activities within the greater Renton community. Find the link on the Renton Live Library resources and events, ongoing. Filter by event, program, and location. kcls.org

April 7-8, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Pop-Up Blood Drive, Hyatt Regency Lake

Facebook page.

Washington at Southport

April 15, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Pop-Up Blood Drive, Lindbergh High School

April 16, 8 a.m.-2 p.m., Pop-Up Blood Drive, Lindbergh High School

April 24, 9 a.m. -12 p.m. Shred-a-thon & Prescription Take-Back